DETAILED ACTION

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 101

35 U.S.C. 101 reads as follows:

Whoever invents or discovers any new and useful process, machine, manufacture, or composition of matter, or any new and useful improvement thereof, may obtain a patent therefor, subject to the conditions and requirements of this title.

Claims 17-27 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 101 because the claimed invention is directed to non-statutory subject matter. The claims feature elements which are not explicitly disclosed as being hardware and could reasonably be software. Because the claims are broad enough to cover software per se, they do not fit into any of the statutory categories of invention.

Allowable Subject Matter

The Examiner acknowledges that the applicant's disclosed invention is patentable over the prior art however the applicant's claims are broad enough too cover other art as illustrated by the rejections presented in this office action. The applicant is encouraged to precisely claim the specific types of elements and message types which the applicant's disclosure describes.

Claims 4, 10, 13, 14, and 16 are objected to as being dependent upon a rejected base claim, but would be allowable if rewritten in independent form including all of the limitations of the base claim and any intervening claims.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 102

The following is a quotation of the appropriate paragraphs of 35 U.S.C. 102 that form the basis for the rejections under this section made in this Office action:

Art Unit: 2442

A person shall be entitled to a patent unless –

(b) the invention was patented or described in a printed publication in this or a foreign country or in public use or on sale in this country, more than one year prior to the date of application for patent in the United States.

(e) the invention was described in (1) an application for patent, published under section 122(b), by another filed in the United States before the invention by the applicant for patent or (2) a patent granted on an application for patent by another filed in the United States before the invention by the applicant for patent, except that an international application filed under the treaty defined in section 351(a) shall have the effects for purposes of this subsection of an application filed in the United States only if the international application designated the United States and was published under Article 21(2) of such treaty in the English language.

Claims 1-3, 5-9, 11, 12, 15, and 17-27 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 102(b) as being anticipated by U.S. Patent Number 5,905,872 to DeSimone et al.

The applicant is directed towards col. 4, line 64-col. 5, line 10 which describes the same broadly claimed process as the applicant is claiming.

Claims 1-3, 5-9, 11, 12, 15, and 17-27 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 102(e) as being anticipated by U.S. Patent Application Publication Number 2004/0170155 to Omar.

The applicant is directed towards paragraph 88 which describes the same broadly claimed process as the applicant is claiming.
